Church Family,

As Easter approaches, I want to encourage you to remember what a wonderful opportunity this season is to reach our community. In John 4 the disciples were trying to get Jesus to eat, to care for Himself. But Jesus corrected His disciples in that moment, and urged them not to merely have their faces fixed downward toward food in front of them. Instead, He tells them in v. 35, “Do you not say, ‘There are yet four months, then comes the harvest’? Look, I tell you, lift up your eyes, and see that the fields are white for harvest.” Church family, those fields are white for harvest in our community as well. We just need to lift up our eyes to see the people whom God has placed in front of us. I want to encourage you to pray for opportunities to have gospel conversations with those God has placed you around. Pray for opportunities to invite others to come be a part of what God is doing in our church. This Sunday, I have great confidence that we will enjoy powerful worship together, but let us not so focus on feeding ourselves that we neglect lifting up our eyes to see the mission field that God has given us.
